

« Bernina Pullman-Express »

A rail cruise through the Swiss Alps in unique Pullman car from the 1930s
- On the tracks of the legendary Orient-Express -

St. Moritz – Tirano – St. Moritz
9 to 11 October 2026

The Alpine Classic Pullman Express combines the timeless elegance of Art Deco with one of Europe's most spectacular railway routes. Travelling in a meticulously restored Pullman carriage of the Compagnie Internationale des Wagons-Lits dating from 1931, guests experience the glamour of the golden age of rail travel. The journey follows the legendary Bernina Line, a UNESCO World Heritage route that links the glaciers of Graubünden with the palm-lined landscapes of the south. Crossing the high-alpine Bernina Pass and the shores of Lago Bianco, passengers enjoy breathtaking views of ice, rock and sky. Passing Alp Grüm and Cavaglia, the train winds its way down into the Val Poschiavo before continuing to Tirano in Italy. Exquisite wood marquetry by René Prou, large panoramic windows and understated luxury create an atmosphere of exceptional refinement. A journey aboard the Alpine Classic Pullman Express is more than a train ride – it is a tribute to the golden age of travel.
