

St. Stephen's Day
aboard the special train
«Prestige Continental-Express»

Saturday, 26 December 2026

Travelling aboard the "Prestige Continental Express" is far more than simply journeying from one destination to another. Together, we discover the enchanting winter landscapes of Switzerland, passing shimmering lakes, snow-covered hills, majestic mountain scenery and peaceful valleys. Above all, however, this is a journey back to a bygone era – welcome opportunity to slow down, escape the pace of everyday life, and embrace timeless elegance.

From the moment you step aboard the beautifully appointed carriages, you are immersed in an atmosphere of refined sophistication and festive warmth. Fine materials, exquisite craftsmanship and attentive service evoke the spirit of the Golden Twenties, while the special season lends the journey an added sense of tranquility and celebration. It is an experience inspired by the finest traditions of Art de Vivre – where pleasure, joie de vivre and gracious hospitality come together in perfect harmony.

Europe's great luxury trains once represented a new way of travelling. They combined comfort, culture and culinary excellence, transforming the journey itself into a destination. It is this tradition that we proudly continue today. Here, the rhythm of the day is not dictated by speed, but by the pleasure of unhurried travel, lingering over fine moments, and admiring the ever-changing winter scenery beyond the windows.

St. Stephen's Day, 26 December 2026

The Christmas season lingers on, and aboard the "Prestige Continental Express" its festive spirit unfolds in especially elegant style. A calm, warm atmosphere accompanies the journey, creating space for moments of enjoyment, engaging conversation, and the mindful experience of time shared together.

Our circular route takes us along the wintry Lake Zurich, onward to Wattwil, via St. Gallen to Weinfelden, and finally back to our point of departure. While the landscape outside drifts past in soft winter tones, the elegant carriages invite guests to linger and savour the enchantment of the festive season in complete tranquillity.

In the elegantly appointed dining car, a freshly prepared festive lunch awaits. With each course, a sense of culinary celebration unfolds, accompanied by selected table beverages and the distinctive ambience of a journey from a bygone era. While the world outside drifts by, enjoyment, conviviality, and the pleasure of shared experiences become the true purpose of the journey.

In this way, Christmas lingers on in the most beautiful manner: with refined hospitality, winter views, and the timeless elegance of a rail journey that creates lasting memories.
